Democracy FCU Offers Financial Solutions Amid COVID-19 Crisis

Alexandria, VA—At Democracy Federal Credit Union (DFCU), our number one priority continues to be the health and well-being of our members, employees, and our community. We understand the concern and uncertainty you are experiencing surrounding the Coronavirus (COVID-19) Pandemic, and we are here to help ease your finance woes.

“Our focus remains on the safety and well-being of our staff, their families, our members and our communities,” said Ken Cahoon, DFCU CEO/President. “We understand that during unprecedented times, we must operate differently to ensure our member’s financial needs are met. Different for us looks like creating programs to provide monetary assistance or relief. Working together, as one community, is how I see us getting through this; every step of the way.”

We remain vigilant in our branches by implementing additional safety precautions as recommended by the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) guidelines, and other public health authorities to disinfect our branches and ATMs to protect our members and employees. We are currently servicing members two at a time in our Alexandria Branch and are assisting members at our Silver Hill Branch in District Heights, MD, through the drive-thru and with in-branch appointments.

We continue to evaluate and make changes to our COVID-19 Business Plan to provide continuous support to our members. In doing so, we have implemented several financial solutions to help our members who have been financially affected by COVID-19.
